If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement. It is our Company policy to file your tax return electronically to the IRS and the state whenever possible. We will provide you with a paper copy of your return to be reviewed and approved prior to filing. We will not transmit your return until we have a signed authorization from you.

If there are conflicting interpretations of the law, we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will follow the position you request, provided it is consistent with our understanding of tax reference materials. Tax reference materials include but are not limited to, the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”), tax regulations, Revenue Rulings, Revenue Procedures, Private Letter Rulings, court cases, and similar state and local guidance. If the IRS, state or local tax authorities later contest the position you select, additional tax, penalties, and interest may be assessed. You represent that you have such documentation and can produce it if necessary, to respond to any audit or inquiry by tax authorities. You agree to hold our firm harmless from any liability including but not limited to, additional tax, penalties, interest and professional fees resulting from the disallowance of tax deductions due to inadequate documentation.

You are responsible for adopting sound accounting practices and devising a system of internal controls.

You agree to review and examine them carefully for accuracy and completeness. The tax returns will be electronically filed unless you do not wish to have your tax returns filed electronically. If you decide to not have your return filed electronically, you will be responsible for signing the paper returns and mailing them timely with the tax authorities. You are responsible for the timely distribution of Schedule K-1 to the shareholders, if applicable.

You are responsible for assuming all management responsibilities, and for overseeing any services we provide by designating an individual, preferably within senior management, who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, or experience. In addition, you are responsible for evaluating the adequacy and results of the services performed and accepting responsibility for the results of such services.

You are responsible for ensuring that personal expenses, if any, are segregated from business expenses and that expenses such as meals, travel, vehicle use, gifts, and related expenses are supported by documentation and records required by the IRS and other tax authorities. At your written request, we are available to provide you with written answers to your questions on the types of supporting records required.

Document Retention

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for 5 years. However, we do not keep any of your original records, so we will return those to you upon the completion of the engagement. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon expiration of the 5 year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

Disclosure and Use of Taxpayer Information

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expense incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege.

The return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax return(s).

By your signature, you authorize us to transmit, update, and store information electronically and to transmit your information over the internet and agree that we shall have no liability of loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from any such transmissions, updates, or storage, including damages such as loss of revenue or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information. If the Partnership has unique security needs, a discussion should be held with us before the engagement.

You agree that you will deliver all records requested and respond to all inquiries made by our staff to complete this engagement on a timely basis. You agree to pay all fees and expenses incurred whether or not we prepare the tax returns. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.
